Dear Jack Brooking

I've read all with your 6/15 in hospital where I've been 3 weeks to the day today. This trip and I've reread what you sent earlier and what I said earlier. My feeling that what you were given as a 2nd-person story is repeated "street information is even stronger.

Some of the story is at least unlikely. Some is I think impossible.

In addition, there is no shred-association connection of any kind.

There are also internal contradictions in Billy Joe's story.

Why he has gone to all this trouble is a question, but that he has is not, I think, a question.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
